

Residential aged care providers: Registration requirements

Residential aged care providers who were supporting an NDIS participant on 1 December 2020 were registered with the NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission (NDIS Commission) as registered NDIS providers under transitional arrangements for RAC providers.

All RAC providers supporting an NDIS participant whose NDIS plan is managed by the National Disability Insurance Agency (NDIA) must now be registered with the NDIS Commission.

This flow chart explains the NDIS provider registration requirements for residential aged care providers.

