

NDIS providers and workers

Respect participants. Respect the code.

NDIS participants and their families should never feel pressured into signing up for supports or services.

Providers must follow the NDIS Code of Conduct.

What you must do

Respect choice

Allow participants to make decisions in their own time.

Be honest and transparent

Provide clear, accurate information when asked.

Act with integrity

Build trust through professional and ethical behaviour.

Learn more about your obligations under the NDIS Code of Conduct

NDIS Quality and Safeguards Commission